Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 22, 2024, EzFill Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) and NextNRG Holding Corp. (formerly Next Charging, LLC) (“Next”) entered into a promissory note (the “Note”) for the sum of $165,000 (the “Loan”) to be used for the Company’s working capital needs. The Note has an original issue discount (“OID”) equal to $15,000, which is 10% of the aggregate original principal amount of the Loan. The unpaid principal balance of the Note has a fixed rate of interest of 8% per annum for the first nine months, afterward, the Note will begin to accrue interest on the entire balance at 18% per annum.

Unless the Note is otherwise accelerated, or extended in accordance with the terms and conditions therein, the balance of the Note, along with accrued interest, will be due on June 22, 2024 (the “Maturity Date”). The Maturity Date will automatically be extended for 2 month periods, unless Next sends 10 days written notice, prior to the end of any 2 month period, that it does not wish to extend the Note, at which point the end of the then current 2 month period shall be the Maturity Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the Company completing a capital raise of at least $3,000,000, the entire outstanding principal and interest through the Maturity Date will be immediately due.

If the Company defaults on the Note, (i) the unpaid principal and interest sums, along with all other amounts payable, multiplied by 150% will be immediately due, and (ii) Next will have the right to convert all or any part of the outstanding and unpaid principal, interest, penalties, and all other amounts under the Note into fully paid and non-assessable shares of the Company’s common stock. The conversion price shall equal the greater of the average VWAP over the ten (10) Trading Day period prior to the conversion date; or $0.70 (the “Floor Price”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the conversion price shall not exceed $2.58 per share.

The Company has agreed to issue 52,000 shares of its common stock to Next (the “Commitment Fee Shares”). The Commitment Fee Shares, when issued, shall be deemed to be validly issued, fully paid, and non-assessable shares of the Company’s Common Stock. The Commitment Fee Shares were deemed fully earned as of April 22, 2024.

The Company and Next have agreed that the total cumulative number of common stock issued to Next under this Note, together with all other transaction documents may not exceed the requirements of Nasdaq Listing Rule 5635(d) (“Nasdaq 19.99% Cap”), except that such limitation will not apply following shareholder approval. If the Company is unable to obtain shareholder approval to issue common stock to Next in excess of the Nasdaq 19.99% Cap, then any remaining outstanding balance of this Note must be repaid in cash at the request of Next.

The Note contains a protection for Next in the event the Company effectuates a split of its common stock. In the event of a stock split, if the Note is issued and outstanding and has not been converted, then the number of shares and the price for any conversion under the Note will be adjusted by the same ratios or multipliers of, any such subdivision, split, reverse split.

Michael Farkas is the chief executive officer and the controlling shareholder of Next (the “CEO”). The CEO is also the beneficial owner of approximately 20% of the Company’s issued and outstanding common stock. Additionally and as previously reported on a Current Report on Form 8-K that was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 16, 2023, on August 10, 2023, and on November 8, 2023, the Company, the members of Next (a limited liability company at the time of such filings) and the CEO (the managing member of Next at the time), as an individual and also as the representative of the members of Next, entered into an Exchange Agreement (the “Exchange Agreement”), pursuant to which the Company agreed to acquire from such members of Next 100% of the membership interests of Next in exchange for the issuance by the Company to the members of Next of shares of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Company. Upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Exchange Agreement (the “Closing”), Next will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. As of the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K, the Closing has not occurred.
